Dear Parents/Carers,

At Portway Junior School we encourage and support all children to always be ready, respectful and safe and we believe that wearing the correct uniform is a key part to this. Uniform also helps the children to feel their best and this in turn has a positive impact on learning and attitudes towards learning.

We understand that this is not always possible due to day to day challenges that can't be helped, however your child has not been in the correct uniform on more than one occasion this half term so we thought a reminder about uniform might be helpful.

If you have any worries about getting school uniform, please come in and see us, or visit the parent pop-in, and we can help you with a solution.

If your child is particularly sensitive to labels and seams and finds uniform 'scratchy' or uncomfortable, then please see Asda's range of sensory school uniform which is all reasonably priced. You can find out more here:
https://direct.asda.com/george/collections/easy-on-easy-wear-school/D28M110G1C3,default,sc.html

Please also remember that jewellery is not allowed and only studs may be worn for earrings. Earrings need to be removed, or covered with tape for PE lessons so it is essential that your child can manage this.

Thank you for your support.

Yours sincerely,

V L Windross
